“But the audience won't like me!”
and other myths

LCA Haecksen
7 January 2014

Elizabeth Krumbach Joseph

lyz@princessleia.com
@pleia2
Elizabeth Krumbach Joseph

Fosscon
Making a difference for millions: Getting involved with FOSS (keynote)

OSCON
Code Review for Systems Administrators

SCaLE
Bringing Linux into public schools and community centers

Talks at San Francisco State University, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, ITT Technical Institute
Myth: The audience won't like you
Myth: You have to know everything
Myth: Good speakers don't need practice
Myth: Good speakers don't get nervous
Myth: Shy people make poor speakers
Myth: Your talk must be completely original
Myth: I can't because <insert any excuse here>
Thank you! Go speak!

Elizabeth Krumbach Joseph
@pleia2